NATIONAL LIBRARY OF IRELAND

KILDARE STREET

DUBLIN

8th May 1916

Dear O'Farrell

It will be important for historical purposes in years to come that public libraries should have copies of the Proclamation of the Irish Republic, and of the one issue of the rebel newspaper. Would it be possible for the Irish Office to preserve copies for this Library, the British Museum, and the National Library of Wales, from which latter I already have had an application on the subject (and indeed for some other Libraries.)

I hope that at this frightfully busy time a letter like this is not an intrusion on you.

Yours sincerely

T.W. Lytton

Chas. Com.?

I agree with this

If possible these copies
should be supplied

Is it possible
to procure copies.
