Sir F Greer would like a reply to following which was sent you on Tuesday (Begins) The a y wants to know whether the Court Martials of civilians at and since the rebellion did not purport to be held under Dora He thinks that this is the case but would like to be confirmed.

Greer (Ends).

US to Greer.

Roughly 180 Courts martial of civilians were held at & since Rebellion. They are believed to have been held under DORA following suspension of by King's proclamation of Sec 1(1) of the D of R. Amendment Act 1915. There was no other power to try a civilian by Court martial for the offences charged in each case.
