J. J. Walsh in his shop, 26, Blessington St. between 9 & 10 p. m.

Mrs Monteith in conversation with a friend who called to see her at her residence, 6, Palmerston Place, yesterday, said that her husband, (R. Monteith) was leaving the country believed for America, where arrangements are being made to form an Irish Brigade, to fight on the side of Germany in the present War.

Mr Monteith has got permission from the Military Authorities to leave this country for America on 28th Inst., but no corroboration, so far, has been obtained regarding the object of his mission.

drilling the Irish Volunteers & taking
them for route marches
which could often
in public houses.
Totally he has been
inactive.

It is hard to say
where a man of this sort does not harm
in Ireland or in America.
Probably in the latter.
