informed.

About 47 members of the Sinn Fein Volunteers assembled at 25, Parnell Sqr. at 9

p. m., and afterwards without rifles in command of Joseph McGuinness, marched to Father Matthew Park, Fairview, where they were inspected by R. Monteith. They returned at 10. 45 p. m., and dismissed without further parade.

A public meeting under the auspices of the Irish Transport Workers Union, is announced to be held in Beresford Place at 9 p. m.

30th. Inst., the object of which is to commemorate the deaths of Nolan and Byrne who,

they alleged were murdered by the Police during the Strike riots in 1913. At the conclusion of the meeting a procession will take place through some of the adjacent streets.

The

The speakers will include James Connolly, W. P. Partridge and other prominent Labour Union organisers.

Attached is a copy of this week's issue of The Workers Republic which, with the exception of a few anti-British notes, does not appear to contain anything deserving special attention.

I also beg to submit a first copy of a newspaper, entitled, "The Searchlight", which however is in policy and principle, a continuation of the Toiler and Irish Tribune, both of which have now ceased to be published.

This new edition is, like its predecessors, a strong supporter of the Allied Forces in France.
