DUBLIN METROPOLITAN POLICE.

Detective Department,

Dublin, 24th March, 1916

MOVEMENTS OF DUBLIN EXTREMISTS.

Subject,

I beg to report that on the 23rd. Inst., the undermentioned extremists were observed moving about and associating with each other as follows:-

Thomas J. Clarke called to his shop, 75, Parnell Street yesterday at 11-30 a.m. where he met John McDermott. Both remained in conversation for some minutes, and subsequently were seen leaving together going in direction of Clarke's residence, Fairview. The latter returned to his shop at 10 p.m. where he remained until he closed the premises half an hour later. Those who called to the place during the day included Pierce Beasley, C.

Colbert, E. Daly, Joseph McGuinness, Frank

Fahy,

The Chief Commissioner.
