Subject, MOVEMENTS OF DUBLIN EXTREMISTS.

I beg to report that on the 16th inst the undermentioned extremists were observed moving about and associating with each other as follows :-

With Thos. J. Clarke, 75 Parnell Street John McGarry for half an hour between 12&1 p.m. Thos. Byrne, Wm. O'Leary Curtis and Jas. Murray, together for an hour from 7.45 p.m. Major John McBride for a few minutes at 10 p.m.

Passway Victor Collins arrived at Broadstone from at 5a.m., and went to Conarchy's Hotel, Parnell Square. During the evening he was visited there by Major John McBride and Henry Dixon. They remained together for over an hour. Collins afterwards retired to his room for the night.

D. Lynch left Kingsbridge by 3p.m. train en route to Limerick. R.I.C. informed.

Attached is a copy of this week's issue of The Workers' Republic which with the exception of a few paragraphs, does not appear to contain anything deserving serious attention.
